Summit County Locals' Night: Free Admission on Friday, August 1

Summit County residents are invited to enjoy free access to the festival on Friday evening, August 1, during Locals' Night. Advance registration is required, and Locals' Night tickets will not be available at entrance gates. Proof of Summit County residency (Utah driver's license, ID, or utility bill) must be presented at entry.

Festival Highlights:

- 200 juried artist booths from across the country, with approximately 20% first-time festival exhibitors
- Live music on multiple stages
- Creation Station: Now located on Heber Avenue, offering hands-on art activities and community projects
- Wheel-Try-It: A pottery experience for all ages at Miner's Park
- Young Artist Academy Booth: Showcasing work by talented teen artists with proceeds supporting both the artists and Kimball Art Center
- Festival merchandise: Featuring a limited-edition design from a Utah artist, available at the information tent (2025 Tshirt design contest open through June 6).

Special Events:

- Coffee Meet-Up: Sunday, August 3 at 10:00 am — the first 100 attendees at the Bear Bench on Main Street will receive a free commemorative travel mug and complimentary coffee.

Supporting the Arts:

Proceeds from ticket sales directly support Kimball Art Center's year-round exhibitions, educational programs, and community initiatives. The Kimball Arts Festival continues to serve as an extension of Kimball Art Center's mission: inspiring and educating Park City residents and visitors by connecting them to high-quality artwork, professional artists, and the artistic process.

About the Park City Kimball Arts Festival

Under the guidance and management of the Kimball Art Center and a longstanding partnership with Park City Municipal Corporation, the Park City Kimball Arts Festival—true to the spirit of its founders in the summer of 1969—has established itself as one of Utah's leading cultural events. Each year, the festival showcases the work of 200 jury-selected artists and welcomes approximately 30,000 attendees from around the world. Now in its 56th year, this three-day, open-air celebration of the arts is considered one of Park City's signature events.

About Kimball Art Center

Kimball Art Center (KAC) provides international-quality art exhibitions and dynamic educational opportunities for the citizens of Park City, Summit County, Wasatch County, and the region's many visitors. KAC introduces audiences to the artistic process and the many layers of creativity through its exhibitions, classes, and events. Art is a catalyst for growth—encouraging reflection, sparking new ideas, and deepening human connection. Founded in 1976, Kimball Art Center is one of the region's oldest creative non-profit organizations and a cornerstone of Park City's vibrant arts community.
